HURRICANE

MARION HIGH SCHOOL
MARION, VIRGINIA

1960

FOREWORD

We, the annual staff, have spent long, hard, and enjoyable hours compiling the twentieth edition of the HURRICANE in order that you may forever cherish the memories of your 1959-'60 school year.

We have chosen as our theme - Through M. H. S. with J. Wesley Wabble. We believe this theme will not only make our annual attractive but be very entertaining to you throughout the entire annual.

You will find the lovable little character and his sidekick portraying our theme engaged in the activities recorded in our yearbook.

You will find him introducing the classes with a math book and that "startled" look, which so many of us had at the beginning of the year. For clubs he has tried to impersonate a president. And in sports he organized a three-man football team with Mr. Hurricane and his sidekick.

We are deeply appreciative of the help given us by the business of our community by their purchasing of advertisements, without which we could not publish a yearbook.

We are indebted to all the people of our community who have aided us by word of encouragement and acts of helpfulness to produce this 1960 HURRICANE.

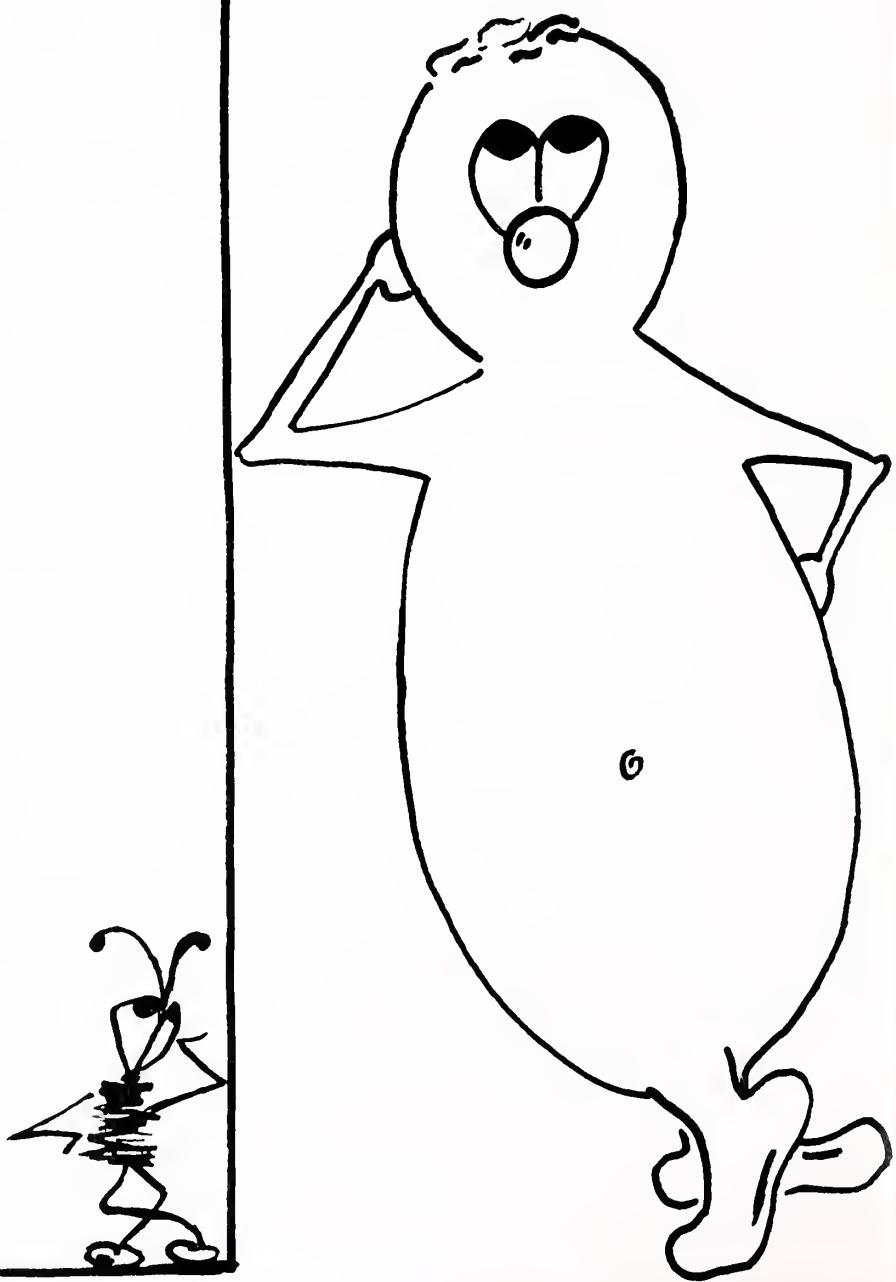

So...if our work has been successful...if our classmates approve the manner in which their activities have been recorded...a tired editor, a weary business manager, and an exhausted staff will be happy.

(“Due to technical difficulty beyond my control I must discontinue the introduction.”)

S. C. A. President

We Honor

In appreciation of her thoughtfulness toward individual students, her sense of humor which made our hard tasks seem easy, and her untiring efficiency and patience which was on inspiration at all times, we, the annual staff who believe in bestowing honor where honor is due, proudly dedicate the 1960 HURRICANE to our friend and teacher, Mrs. Jane Waters.

THE ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Marion High School now offers three courses of study: College Preparatory, Commercial, and General. Marion High School offers twenty-one units of work in the academic field, including four units in English, five units in mathematics, four units in science, three units in history, world geography, and two units each in Latin and Spanish; nine units of work in fine arts including two units in art, two units in chorus, two units in band, and one unit in music appreciation; twenty-one units in practical arts including two units in industrial arts, four units in agriculture, three units in home economics, seven units in business education, and two units in distributive education. Within the framework of our offering the administration has planned and worked during the past year to make Marion High School a better school in the following ways:

(1) The Principal attended the Virginia Secondary Principal's Conference in Fredericksburg, Virginia in June, 1959, the Virginia Education Association Annual Convention in Richmond, Virginia in October, 1959, and many other similar conferences of a local or regional nature. These conventions helped the administration keep up with current happenings in education on nationwide, statewide and local levels. (2) The administration has made many appearances before civic clubs, P.T.A. groups, church groups, Chamber of Commerce groups, and other groups telling about various school activities. (3) The accelerated program for a group of eighth grade students has been continued. There are two groups of accelerated students. Twenty-six ninth grade students are enrolled in two tenth grade subjects and twenty-nine eighth grade students are enrolled in ninth grade algebra and ninth grade general science. A report of the progress of these two groups was made to a group of mathematics teachers at the University of Virginia in March, 1960. (4) A special effort was made to help all students work out an individualized study program for the year. This was done during homeroom periods and in some regular class periods. (5) A complete study of failures in the school during first semester was made by parents, students, and teachers. The standard of work throughout the school was raised as a result of this study. (6) An exceptionally well planned pre-registration procedure helped the students, parents and teachers, and administration plan the school program for the approaching year. (7) The construction of the new Senior High School has been delayed by foundation problems. The school should be ready for occupancy in September, 1961.

We solved social....

We try to cultivate the fundamentals of our American Heritage and to encourage our history students to develop an appreciation of the past and its implications on the future.

Social, economic and political factors, as related to our history, are studied through research, map study and audio-visual aids thereby giving the student a comprehensive look at all phases of our wonderful American History.

Mr. McDonald's government class display their booklets.

During the year the students have learned about Federal, State, and Local Governments. They keep up with elections, and make booklets on state, local, national and international affairs. The students have shown much interest in the related projects and problems. They practice Democracy as they study it.

Mrs. Holmes, Linda Pruner, Scott Trent, Jonice Murray, and Mary Ellen Killinger watching Donna Hausee and Ann Whitmore point out some historical landmarks.

The more that is known of the past, the fewer mistakes will be made in the present; therefore, a better future will result--this is the purpose of the study of World History. It broadens our outlook and widens our scope of humanity. It gives us a cultural background and appreciation for music, art, architectural, drama, religious, and political life.

.... And scientific problems

Mr. Pafford watches while Joseph Francis, Robert Kelly, Garnet Gabel, and Harold Pruitt, use slide rules and Jerry Sultan, Mac Buchanan, Sammy Russell, Ronald Atkins, Ronald Burnap, and Kay Musser experiment with the electrical kits.

Physics satisfied our curiosity about everyday problems. We learn how to use the scientific method of working out a problem or an experiment. Every member of the class, twenty-four in all, did several experiments with the electrical kits and all have learned to use the slide rule. The class took an active part in the Smyth County Science Fair.

Mr. Brown watches and Dorothy Campbell records as Donald Hash, Crump Robinson, Donald Slagle, and Donald Atkins perform an experiment.

Chemistry is the study of the composition of matter. In our Chemistry class we learn the industrial methods of making gases, liquids and compounds. Experiments in the Marion High School laboratory lead to individual experimentation and research projects for science fair competition.

Ja Ann Taylor, Kirk Spitzer, Janet Francis, Paula Hicks, Bill Mayden, and Linda Wyatt find Biology interesting.

The biology class is designed to make the study a challenging and richly rewarding experience in science. A systematic study of plants, animals, and man is made to show the unity of life and relationship of all living things. A workbook is used to stimulate group investigations and individual projects are developed for local, county, and district fairs.

We become mathematicians....

Shelby Jeon Marchant lists the last stock market quotations as given by Ellavene Powell under the direction of Mr. Wilson.

General business is designed to give the student information concerning business. He studies distribution, transportation, communication, budgeting, and business procedures. From these studies, the student can better determine for what phase of business he or she is best qualified.

Linda Snider, Denton Cormany, Elizabeth Brooks, Joe Mauck, Patricia Elkins, Georgia Dutton, Goylo Belcher, Frances Tindall, and Lacurgas Forrest work as Mr. Corp instructs.

Algebra is a language. This mathematics structure has been established and improved for over three thousand years. The students of Marion High School who are taking Algebra II will become the mathematicians of tomorrow. They will be the ones to improve the language. In an Algebra II class, the students learn the fundamentals needed in all mathematics above the level of arithmetic.

Plane Geometry seems interesting to Mary Ann Jennings, Susan Hutchinson, Marilyn Anderson, Betty Pugh, Donald Wechsler, Roger Copenhaver, and Miss Diggs.

In plane Geometry the students have learned the parts and the properties of the different geometric figures. They have proved exercises and simultaneously developed their thought processes through the emergence of a proof from the stage of what is given to the final conclusion of what has been proved. Over a period of six weeks, they kept a notebook, including in it formal proofs and brief exercises. At the end of the study of a chapter on construction, each student made original designs using the methods of construction learned. Through oral explanation at the board, the students have become able to express their own ideas as well as learned information before a group. They have developed poise and confidence in the realm of self-expression as the result of the study of Plane Geometry. They have cultivated the ability to think soundly and logically which will be an asset in every phase of their future lives.

....And English Scholars

Sommy Russell, Susan Mink, Georgia Lauridson, Ronald Burnop, Chorlene Jones, and Thomas Casteel enjoy literature and term papers.

The senior English course taught by Mrs. Schulz is a correlated combination of English literature, composition, and grammar which is continuous throughout both semesters of the school year. Research papers and book reports on selected classics from English literature serve to augment this outline of study.

Mr. Honklo, Edward Duke, Lynn Groseclose, David Blevins, Hugh Gwyn watch as Carol Scott, Herbert Luquer, and Annette McDonald diagram sentences.

The first semester of Junior English was devoted to a detailed study of grammar, composition, spelling, and vocabulary building. Our weekly themes concerned various subjects as we developed a list of words and phrases we were not to use.

The literature of the United States, vocabulary building and composition, along with the list of eight book reports, as well as a term paper on our chosen career proved to be beneficial. Yes, this was our second semester in Junior English!

Georgia Dutton, Mary Ellen Killinger, Linda Pruner, Elizabeth Brooks, Doris Sherwood, Betty Box, Jock Frye, Sondra Wheeler, Donna Hause, Carolyn O'Donnell, and Carolyn Hago learn sentence structure under the guidance of Mrs. McReynolds.

They study EXPLORING LIFE THROUGH LITERATURE, and report on at least six selected books. Their grammar consists of the fundamentals of proper identification of the parts of speech and grammatical composition. Much time is given to writing short themes.

We became artists

Jayce Blankenblecker, Marvin Graseclose, Rebecca Barnett, Ranald Burnap, and Betty Mauck perfect their act as Kay Musser and James Ritter direct.

Since development of personality and character is so important to education, and since the actor's medium is himself--voice, body, mind, senses and emotions--all speech and dramatics training must be directed toward personal improvement. These things we attempt to do by reading, interpreting and criticizing scenes and plays, by exercises in enunciation, voice and posture, by practicing the casting of characters and reading a variety of parts. Speaking before the group is a vital part of training also.

Jayce Blankenbeckler plays while Mr. Waddell, Larry Waad, Frank Blevins, Patricia Spencer, and Dorothy Campbell sing.

In music classes students learn about music history, to appreciate good music of the past and present; and in chorus, the techniques of producing music. They learn to perform together and individually, for other schools, State Chorus, and community organizations. Music is learning and entertainment for performers and audience.

Mrs. Linkaus instructs artists Dorothy Watson, Evangeline Killinger, Lee Staats, Juanita Burnap, Vernon Stanley, and Thomas Casteel.

The students who plan to make art their career and those who are taking art for their own personal use, find they get valuable experience through their varied activities in art class. They are busy with posters, backdrops, study of art appreciation, exhibits, and all types of artwork for many of the civic organizations in our town.

And linguists

Jerry Walls, Kirk Spitzer, Anna Sharp, Ann Whitmore, and Janet Francis learning Latin.

In our first year classes we translate stories about the gods and goddesses of ancient Rome. We learn the basic fundamentals of Latin which will enable us to go into the second year of Latin.

In Latin Club we supplement our class work by learning Latin songs, discussing Latin customs and dress, and making reports on Romans we have studied.

Mr. Julca and Barbara Dancy record a story in Spanish as Elizabeth Greer, Dorothy Shupe, Anne Williams, Patricia Elkins, Janice Murray, Judith Dancy, Betty French and Helen Heath look on.

The Spanish Department is our high school's window to the Spanish speaking world. Through it we have seen much of our neighbors' way of life. We have read their stories, played their music, sung their songs, we have even written to Latin American students! In class we attempt not only to write and read but also to speak entirely in Spanish.

At the first meeting of the Latin Club, "Cohors Caesaris," we elected officers. Our Club membership is in the National and State Junior Classical Leagues.

Throughout the first semester the programs were prepared in Latin and in English. During the Holiday Seasons, "Saturnalia" was observed in one program while "A Study of Romance Languages" was observed in another. Everyone enjoyed these meetings. At Christmas, our Latin club presented a needy family with a nice basket of food.

For our second semester, projects such as essays, tournaments, etc. were planned. Most of the students desired a Roman banquet rather than individual projects for Latin Week in April. Our officers: Consul, proconsul, Praetor, and quaestor worked with Miss Elizabeth Neff, our sponsor, on various programs during the year.

Ja Ella Hall, Elizabeth Braaks, Matilda Capenhaver, Patsy Funk, and Frances Tindall sing for Latin Club.

Our study of vocations . . .

C. L. Schuler, Paul Snavely, and Douglas Henderlite display projects made in industrial arts.

Industrial arts is a part of general education dealing with the tools, materials, and processes of industry. The student in industrial arts selects, often designs, and always makes drawings of his project. In building his project he learns about tools, materials, and how they are used. When a project is finished he has a finished piece of furniture or equipment plus new skills and information.

The awards show that the F. F. A. has been busy. The members pictured are; Richard Sikes, Elbert Corrico, William McCellan, Troy McForlane, William Maiden, Willis Richardson, William Stowers, and Wesley Hoover.

Mrs. Werth dictates and her second year shorthand class show their skill.

Shorthand is given primarily to prepare students for secretarial jobs upon graduation. At the end of the year, first year students are expected to be able to take five minutes of unfamiliar dictation at sixty words a minute, and some girls attain a speed of ninety words a minute. The rate at the end of the second year must be ninety words a minute, and some students reach 120 words. In shorthand 11 students learn to transcribe their notes into readable letters.

This year twenty-four girls are completing Shorthand II.

Typing I acquaints the student with the basic techniques necessary for mastering the correct procedures to be used in personal and office style typewriting. Competitive skill drills are taken and "artistic" typewriting is practiced. Requirements at the end of the first year are 30 net words an three and five minute timed writings.

Typing II is primarily for those students who wish to pursue a career in Business Education. It offers a thorough study of office-practice typewriting through business letters, legal documents, financial statements, etc. This prepares the students for a local secretarial position or furnishes the fundamentals necessary for higher training in this field. Fifty net words on five and seven minute writing are the basic requirements for speed.

Mr. Edens instructs Randall Wright, Donald Kegley, Elizabeth Fishel, Brian Helmick, Alvin Wassum, Anna Stowers, Emmaline Blevins, Thelma Goodpasture, Scott Laughon, Lynn Barret, and Richard Waddel in good typing procedures.

.... Added spice to our activities

Mr. Wilson's D. E. class look on as Peggy Richardson and Shirley Anderson point out a vital personality trait, "Self-Confidence."

The classroom instruction in D. E. is tied-in directly with the work experience of the students. Shirley Anderson and Peggy Richardson present a flannel board presentation of personality traits required of D. E. students and employees. Much actual experience is gained through the D. E. Club. One outstanding project this year was the making of the decorations used by the merchant's association. These included wreaths and streamers for the streets. Classroom instruction, club contests and projects, and on-the-job training help the D. E. student to find a profession in distribution.

Mechanical drawing at Marion High is designed primarily for those who are going to college to major in some field of engineering.

Types of drawings covered are: principles of size and shape description, orthographic projection, sectioning, perspective, oblique, and isometric.

Barton Sprinkle, Dennis Aker, Joseph Hoofnagle, James Ritter, Ronald Winebarger, and Donald Kegley display talent in Mechanical Drawing, while Mr. Vicars watches.

Betty Mauck, Norma Hall, Mrs. Dillard, and Sharon Hutton wrap muffins for the freezer.

There are ten classes daily in Home Economics including two exploratory classes for eighth graders. Units of work include not only food preparation but work in all areas of homemaking such as contributing to happy family life, caring for and guiding the growth of children, caring for the sick, planning and improving family housing and home furnishings and developing family recreation. The girls assist with planning and serving refreshments for dances, college career night, and other school activities.

Barbara Doyle, Roy Martin, Linda Wolfe, David Dishner, and Joe Hutton show their first year art work.

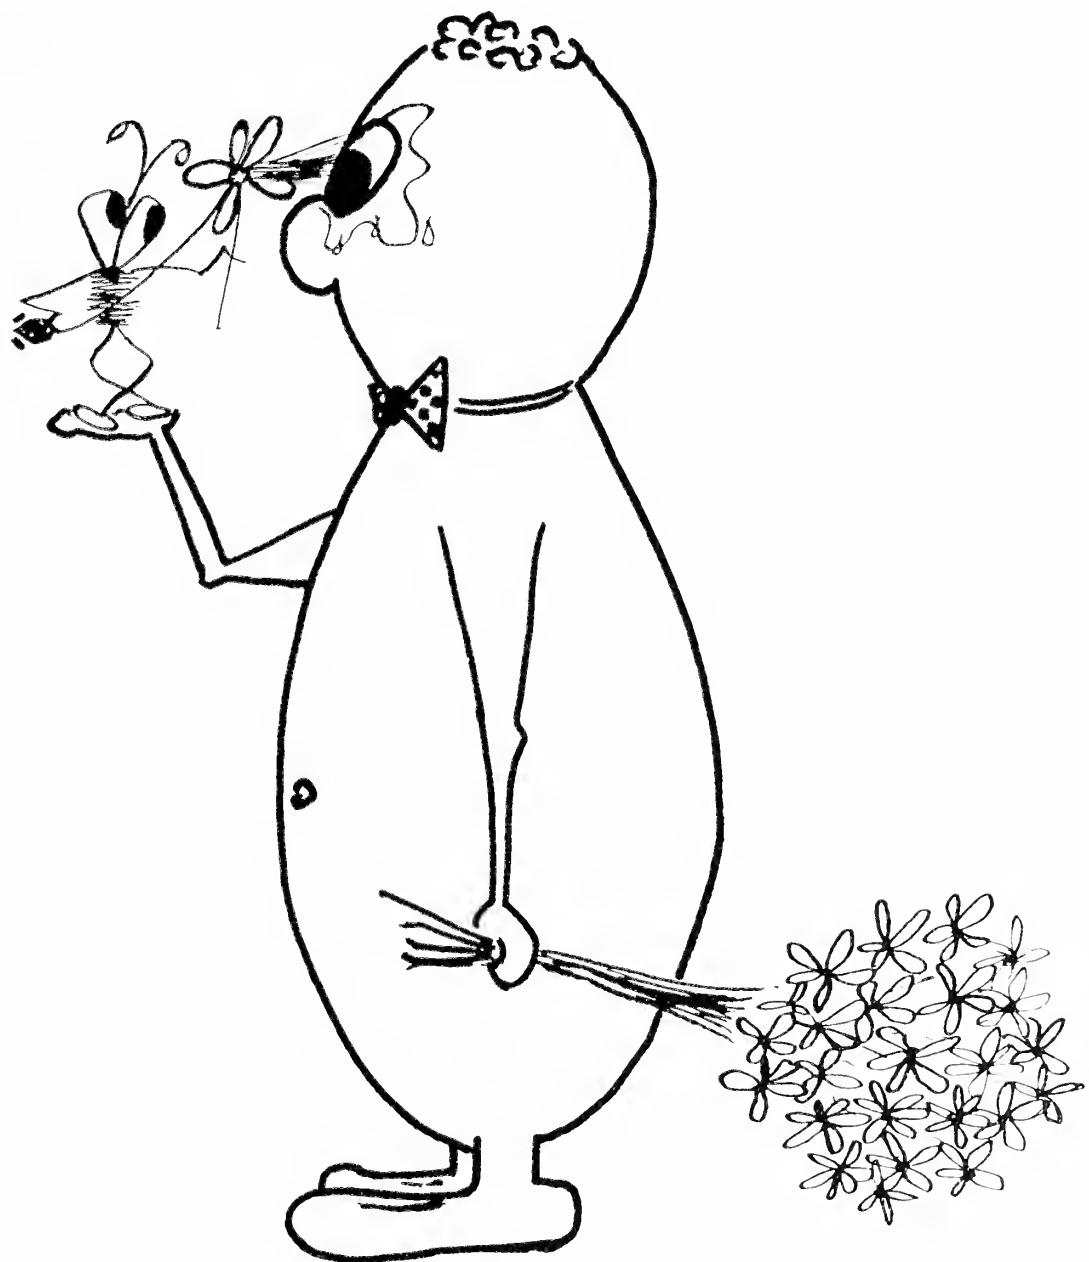

The students in first year art class learn the basic techniques of drawing and painting. They are instructed in the use of the different mediums-- pencil, crayon, charcoal, pastels, tempera, water color and oils. Art appreciation is also included in their study.

The work done in Art I gives a foundation for the students planning to take Art II and also a working knowledge of art for those students who plan to take only one year of art.

Lana Pickle, Nancy Janes, James Kennedy, Roger Copenhaver, David Blevins, Robin Ritter, Carol Collins, and Alvin Wassum, "enjoying the refreshments."

Dancing on an "Oriental Isle" are Rebecca Barnett, Marvin Groseclose, Dorothy Perkins, Fred Clark, Virginia Heldreth, Lorry Wood, Carol Collins, Roger Copenhaver.

An imaginary trip to an "Oriental Isle" was enjoyed by students of the Junior and Senior Classes of Marion High and their dates, at the annual Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday, May 7, 1960.

Shades of blue and pink crepe paper interspersed with yellow made a canopy which completely covered the dance floor. From this canopy, Japanese lanterns with multi-colored bulbs were strung. Oriental windchimes completed the overhead decorations.

At one end of the gym, a bronze-colored Buddha with flashing eye and jeweled forehead surveyed the scene. Beside the Buddha, water rose from a fountain, falling into a misty pool. A Japanese doorman, complete with gong, heralded the arrival of each couple.

Tables around the dance floor were placed on artificial grass. Each was covered with a white cloth, and a miniature oriental fan and lantern served as decorations.

A flat bowl of lilacs backed with a huge golden oriental fan arrayed the refreshment table with several Japanese dolls completing the picture. Punch and fortune cookies highlighted the refreshments. These were complimented by assorted cookies, nuts, and mints.

Romantic and enjoyable music was furnished throughout the evening by the "Lamplitters."

Miss Diggs and Mrs. Worth serve punch to Cameron Wolfe, Nancy Dixon, Hugh Gwyn, Barbara Crowder, Larry Wood, Virginia Heldreth, Fred Clark, and Dorothy Perkins, while others wait anxiously.

The Scarlet Hurricane started the 1959 season with a young, inexperienced squad with only seven seniors on hand. Co-captained by Joe Thompson and Lee Stoots, the team showed the fans a thrilling season. Seniors, Burton Eller, Donald Atkins, William Bergeron, Jerry Sutton, Franklin Blevins, Joe Thompson, and Lee Stoots turned in good performances to end their high school football careers. Outstanding on defense, Lee Stoots, Eller and Atkins were the mainstays in holding the opponents to low score or entirely scoreless throughout the season.

Marian 12 Graham 6

Marian defeated the 1958 Southwest District champion Graham with a 12-6 victory in Blueview. Halfback Frank Blevins scored the first touchdown and junior fullback Robert Graybeal carried the ball over for the second score.

Crump Robinson recovered on Abingdon fumble which Frank Blevins soon after carried for Marion's first score. Bales passed to Bales for the extra point. Edward Boles ran 56 yards to give Marion its final score for the night.

Marian 0 Richlands 6

Coach Ernie Hicks' Blue Tornado upset Marion for the first loss of the season winning over Marion by a hard-won 6-0.

Marian 0 Wytheville 14

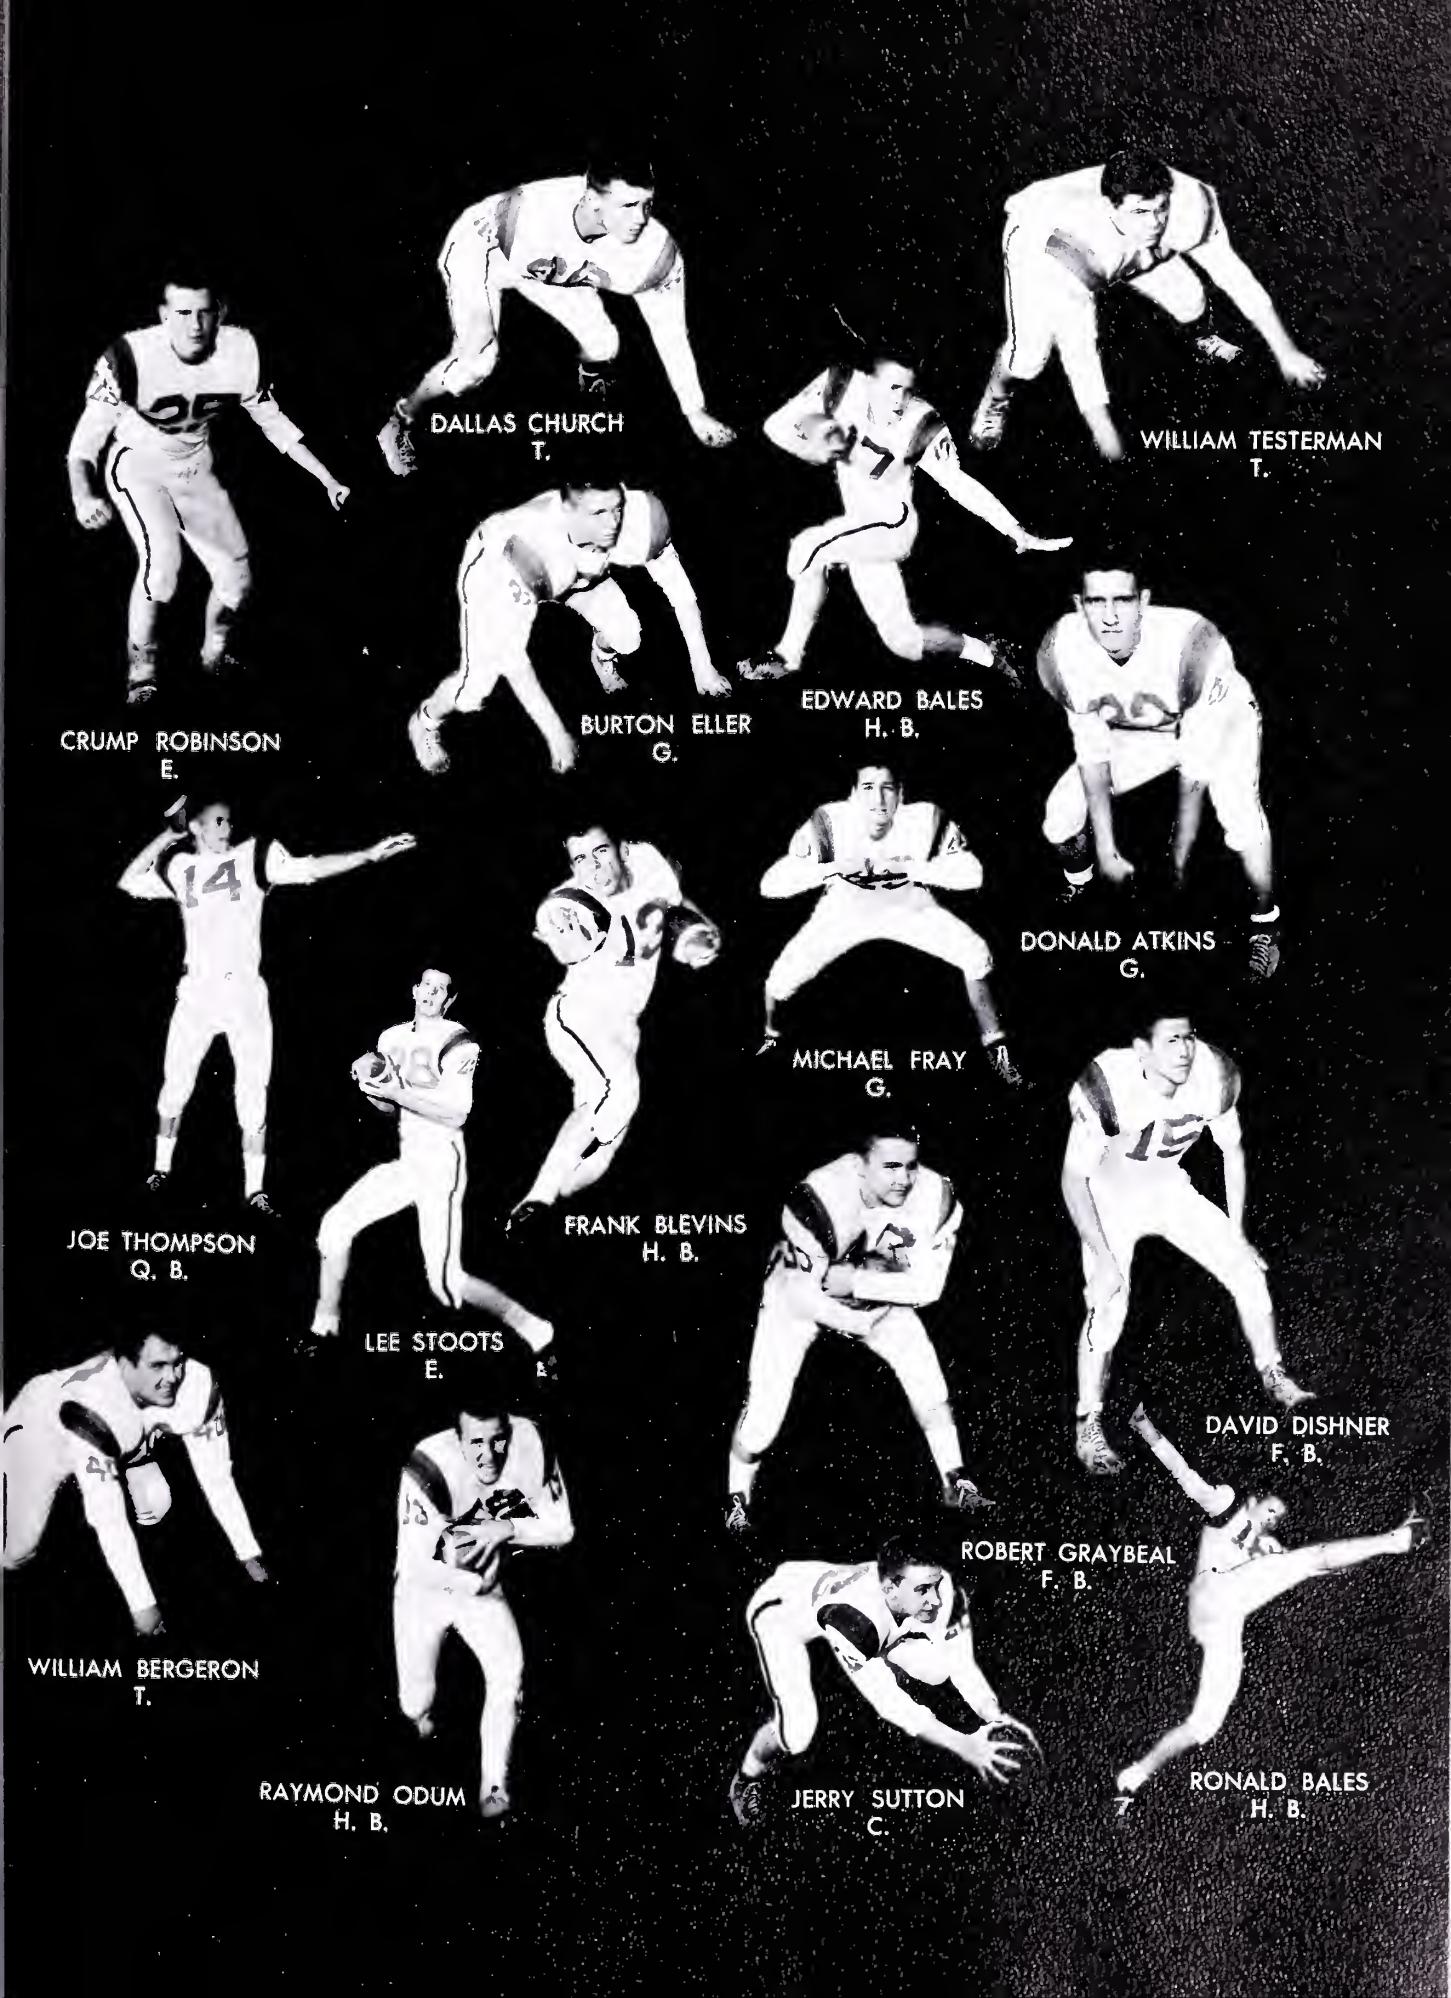

At Wytheville in the mud again Marion bogged down and George Wythe scored a 14-0 victory over the water-logged Hurricane.

Marian 6 Bristol 7

The Bristol Bearcats retaliated for last year's defeat with a fourth quarter 7-6 victory over the Scarlet Hurricane. Marion's score came when little Franklin Blevins dived over the goal line in the third quarter.

Marian 0 Soltville 13

The Scarlet Hurricanettes began another basketball season with around fifty girls ready to try their luck. Training and try-outs began the last of November. A few stragglers dropped by the way-side during this time. The number was finally narrowed down to the fifteen for the Varsity Team. Lettermen returning were Carol Hall, Dorothy Perkins, Betty Mauck, Margaretta Simons, and Annette McDonald. As the season progressed, almost all the girls played in at least sixteen quarters--enough to be eligible for a letter.

Marion 66 Chilhowie 21

This was the first game of the season in which the Hurricanettes trounced the Chilhowie Warriors. McDonald, Perkins, Burnop, and Haas led the scoring. All the team saw action.

Marion 49 Saltville 39

The Hurricanettes came from behind at the end of the first quarter to win this thriller. The guards showed a tremendous defense. Haas and McDonald led the scoring.

Marion 51 Rich Valley 24

Marion was ahead all the way to win the third game of the season. The substitutes kept the game bouncing ahead to the final seconds.

Marion 52 Rural Retreat 28

The Hurricanettes came from behind to again win, this time over Rural Retreat. Perkins led the scoring. Heldreth, Mauck, Simons, and Hall saw the most defensive action.

Marion 50 Sugar Grove 36

Marion overcame the inexperienced Sugar Grove team to win the fifth game in a row. The points were evenly distributed among all the forwards. All defensive players saw action also.

Marion 49 Sugar Grove 29

Marion saw another win when they met Sugar Grove for the second time. By knowing all the opposing team's faults, the Hurricanettes had no trouble racking up this victory.

Marian 59 Oak Hill Academy 29

This nerve-getting game saw Marian again come from behind in the first quarter to a one point lead at half-time, and then on to rack up a huge victory. Marian scored 36 points in the last half to Oak Hill's 7 points. Heffinger played an outstanding game as a guard. Mauck broke her finger, the only injury of the season.

Marion 59 Chilhowie 18

The flu bug did not phase the winning ability of the Hurricanettes. Perkins, Rowland, and Burkett led the scoring. All the team saw action.

Marian 63 Saltville 24

Marian racked up another win, this time over Saltville. All the forwards contributed to the score. The defense showed power over Saltville's offense.

Marion 59 Liberty Hall 39

In an afternoon game, Marian kept their winning streak by beating Liberty Hall. McDonald and Burnop led the scoring. The whole team saw action in the game.

Marion 39 Wallace 19

The mighty Hurricanettes knocked tired Wallace to continue the winning series. Heffinger, Hall, Heldreth, and Jennings closed the defensive in to shave off any possible attempts by Wallace. Perkins, Burnop, and McDonald kept the basket busy.

Marion 37 Rich Valley 24

Marian came from behind again to win another in a row. Rich Valley seemed out to get Marian but the Hurricanettes came back with all forces.

Marion 58 Oak Hill Academy 40

Oak Hill was ready this time but so was Marion, as they once again scored another victory. All the team saw action as the scoreboard showed a victory once again.

Marion 13 Wallace 24

The final game of the season saw the Hurricanettes lose to the refreshed Wallace team. This game showed a slump in offensive and in defensive work. The team realized that one cannot be a winner all the time.

These are only two of the many activities which the physical education department offers the students of Marian High School. Others are: archery, golf, tennis, badminton, field hockey, soccer, softball, touch football, track events, ping pong, horseshoe, basketball, shuffleboard, and darts. The physical education department also gives courses in health, safety, and first-aid.

As spring comes so comes the great American pastime—baseball. The middle of March marked the beginning of the Scarlet Hurricane tryouts. Graduation left the Hurricane without Bob Doyle, Bill Catron, Alvin Crowder, and Terry Childers, all of whom helped mold a team that took the Southwest District Championship in 1959. However a few of the old hands—Randy Wright, Jerry Sutton, Wallace Doyle, Dan Atkins, Bill Cavey, Crump Robinson, Ron Bales, Ed Bales, and Dallas Church—could be seen tossing the ball around. On March 22 the team had been weeded down to 20 players who were ready for the opposition and to defend the district title.

MARION 12 SALTVILLE 1

The Marion Scarlet Hurricane turned in its first baseball victory of the 1960 season by pounding out 12 runs while holding the Shakers to one run. Marion played errorless ball while the Shakers made three miscues. Ron Bales with 2 singles and Crump Robinson with a triple led the Marian attack. Bill Cavey relieved Lantz Haywood in the 1st inning and received credit for the victory.

MARION 6 SALTVILLE 1

On April 19 Marion traveled to Saltville and shook the Shakers to gain their second victory. Bill Cavey went the distance on the mound allowing 5 hits and striking out 7 while collecting 2 hits himself.

MARION 11 CHILHOWIE 4

After a slow start the Hurricane caught fire and pushed over 4 runs in the 5th frame and 7 more in the 6th to defeat the Warriors. Ron Bales homered with two aboard. Wallace Doyle also collected a home run while Randy Wright, Frank Blevins, and Dallas Church each collected 2 hits. Bill Cavey went the distance for Marion giving up 7 hits.

MARION 7 VIRGINIA HIGH 10

Marion went down in defeat for the 1st time of the 1960 season. The Bearcats outplayed the Hurricane in every department but it took them 8 innings to finally bag the victory. Virginia High collected 12 hits to Marion's 5 and committed only three errors compared to Marion's 7. It was just not the Hurricane's night. Cavey lost his first game, and Ron Bales was the only Marian hitter with two hits.

MARION 8 RICH VALLEY 6

Marian finally came out on top in an eleven inning duel with the Steers of Rich Valley. Jim Buchanan pitched 7 innings of four hit ball before Bill Cavey came on to go the rest of the way and gain the win. Ron Bales paced the Marian attack with a double and a single. Don Atkins collected the hit that clinched the game for the Hurricane.

MARION 2 GATE CITY 3

The Blue Devils of Gate City pushed across two runs in the bottom of the 4th inning to hand Marian their second loss. This was the play-off of the 1 to 1 tie played at Gate City. The win assured Gate City at least a tie for the district championship. Bill Cavey collected the only Marian hit.

MARION 6 GATE CITY 3

Marion gave the Blue Devils their first defeat of the season and broke their 9-game winning streak. Dan Atkins led the Marian batters by picking up two of Marion's four hits. Ron Bales went the distance and received credit for the win.

MARION 7 ABINGDON 3

Marion High dealt Abingdon's Falcons their first loss of the season by a 7 to 3 margin. Ron Bales pitched a neat 6 hitter. Randy Wright and Dallas Church led the Marian stickmen by collecting a single, double, and triple each.

MARION 7 VIRGINIA HIGH 4

The Hurricane gained revenge for an earlier defeat by beating the Bearcats 7 to 4 on May 17. Ron Bales and Dallas Church both connected for home runs while Don Atkins had a double and a single. Ron Bales went the distance giving up six hits—three to Gary Rabinette—and no walks.

Student Cooperative Association

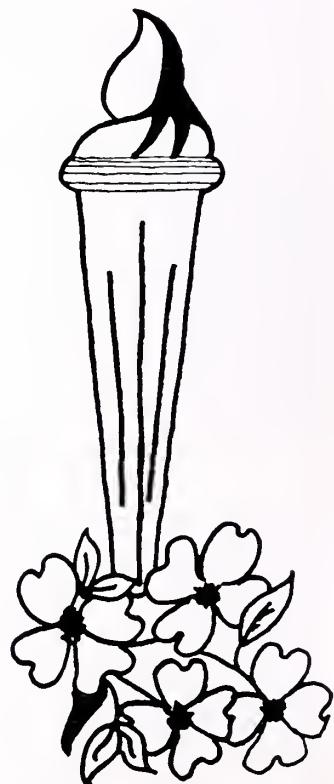

The Student Cooperative Association is a live and working organization at Marion High School. During the past year, the association has accomplished many projects.

The S. C. A. has sponsored the following projects during the school year: A sale of textbooks at the beginning of the year, the annual Homecoming Dance, the March of Dimes campaign, sending representatives to the district and state S.C.A. conventions, and the donation of blood by parents to the Blood Mobile.

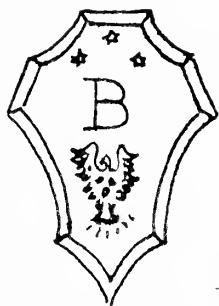

Various other activities were also carried out. The S. C. A. revised the Honor Code, and a complete week was devoted to the passing out and signing. An assembly program was presented, introducing the revised code to the student body.

Perhaps the most important of all these projects was the cooperation of the S. C. A. with the faculty in installing and carrying out the new discipline system. It consisted of a Discipline Committee made up of faculty members and students. The purpose of this committee was to help the student understand his discipline problems and to guide him in the right way. It is the only system in this area of that type.

Two projects which were worked on very hard this year but not completed were the student activity ticket and the point system for giving an award to an outstanding senior.

Beta Club

This year the Marion High School Beta Club can boast of being one of the largest in the state of Virginia.

The projects the club has completed this year are as follows: It sold drive-in tickets, decorated cars for the Homecoming parade, sold stationery, and bought Christmas seals. Also, there was a Beta Club breakfast just before the closing of school. The members of the club participated and had special guests.

In March, the Beta Club sent seven delegates to the National Beta Club Convention. This year it was held in Roanoke.

The Beta Club was in charge of the assembly program for American Education Week.

The motto of the club is "Let us lead by serving others."

Gama Delta Tri-Hi-Y

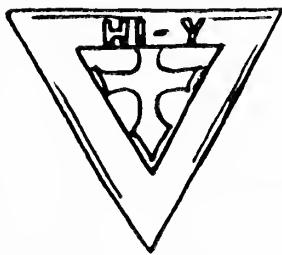

The projects the club has completed this year are as follows: It has sent five CARE packages to Korea, contributed to World Service, sponsored a table blessing at each of the four lunch periods, has given the Thanksgiving Assembly program, sponsored devotions at the weekly assembly, prepared a Thanksgiving and a Christmas basket for the needy, adapted a family of seven at Christmas time and provided new clothing, toys, and food for them.

Also at Christmas time, the Gamma Delta Tri-Hi-Y Club, in cooperation with the other Y Clubs of Marion High School, sponsored the annual Christmas Dance with the theme of "Santa's Workshop."

The club sent delegates to the district meeting and to the Model General Assembly. The main money-making project of the year was the selling of vacuum-packed tins of candy.

Hi-Y

As projects for this year, the club had the table blessing for each of the four lunch periods, posted the thought for the day on the bulletin boards, sent delegates to the Model General Assembly held in Richmond, and the district meeting at Solotville was represented by the club.

The Hi-Y co-sponsored the annual Christmas

Dance with the theme of "Santo's Workshop." The club jointly presented the Easter Assembly program with the Senior Tri-Hi-Y and sold refreshments at the Gold-Medal basketball tournament.

The main money-making project was the Dance Ball Game in January.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y

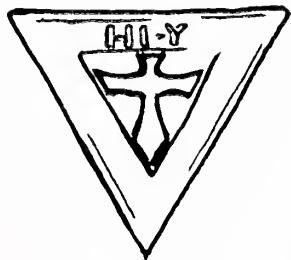

The Junior Tri-Hi-Y of Marion High enables its members to help in activities and projects of a social, educational, and spiritual nature. Committees were appointed in which each person was put to work, planning activities.

As projects, a table blessing was presented at each of the four lunch periods, sponsored the Christmas Dance with the other Y clubs, sent one delegate to the Model General Assembly in Richmond, jointly presented the Easter Assembly, placed a "Thought for the Week" on the bulletin boards, and attended the different churches.

Junior Hi-Y

The Junior Hi-Y has had several projects this year. Each member has tried to live up to the motto of the club which is "clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living."

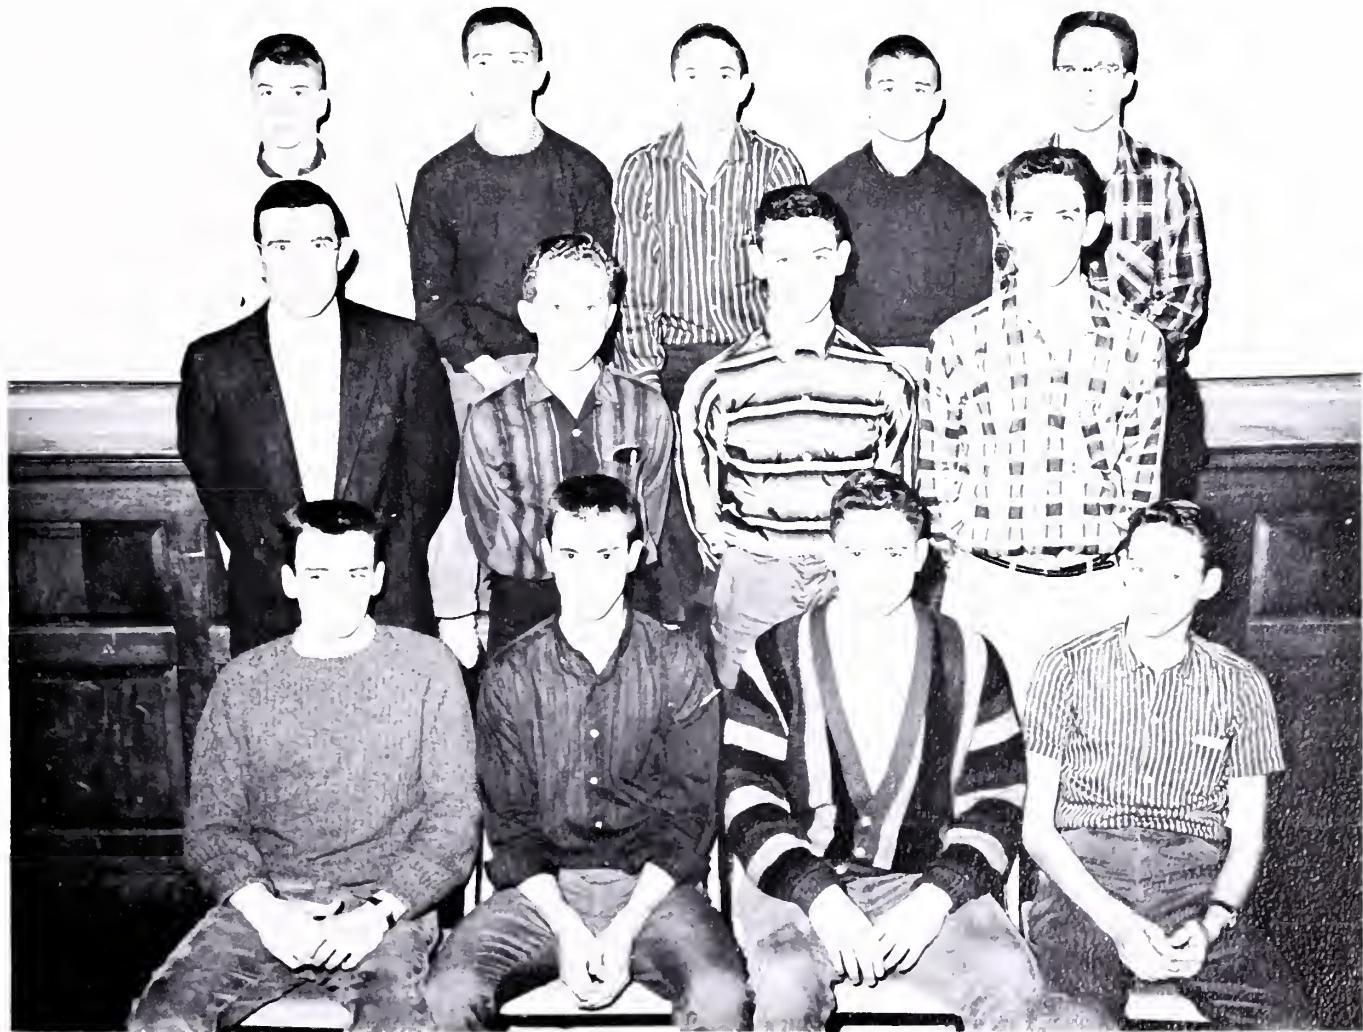

The club has performed useful home, church, school, and community services, developed personal integrity and self-discipline, practiced democratic methods by preparing for responsibility in the future, and developed an active and growing relationship in the churches.

The club has given Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to needy families and sold pennants at basketball games.

Future Homemakers Of America

The Future Homemakers of America is a club organized for girls interested in homemaking.

Each year the club has many activities. This year the activities included taking magazines to the patients at the Southwestern State Hospital, giving a Thanksgiving and a Christmas basket to a needy family, and having a Mother-Daughter Party and a Daddy-Date Night. In February, the club sponsored the annual Valentine Dance,

"Heart of My Heart." The club served at the faculty tea and gave a fashion show in assembly.

The officers of the club attended a Federation meeting in Abingdon. Other members of the club attended the Spring Rally, the State Convention, and observed National F. H. A. week.

During the summer, some members of the club will attend F. H. A. camp in Smithfield, Virginia.

Future Farmers of America

The accomplishments of the Marion Chapter of the Future Farmers of America this year were as follows. Ten members represented the club at the State F. F. A. Rally held at Blacksburg, eleven members attended F. F. A. Camp at Smithfield, the Purebred Landrace Pig Chain was started, and the Chapter forestry and "Keep Virginia Green" training program was held.

The highlights of the year included the F. H. A. F. F. A. Valentine Dance, the Father and Son Banquet, and the assembly program during the F. F. A. Week. The chapter also acquired new books, and chapter and shop equipment.

This year there are sixty-three members of which twenty-four are greenhands.

In February, the Employer-Employee Banquet was held to show appreciation to the employers of the members. For this annual occasion, friends and citizens who have helped the Distributive Education Program were invited.

In April, the District V Convention was held in Abingdon with representatives from Marion High School. This convention is built around the Distributive Education course of study and the contests and club work.

Future Business Leaders of America

Regular duties of the F. B. L. A. members this year have been typing for the MARIONETTE and doing stenographic and clerical work for the teachers.

The club sent Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to needy families, prepared envelopes for the March of Dimes Drive in Marion, and sent delegates to the F. B. L. A. Planning Committee in the fall and to the F. B. L. A. Convention in the spring.

A "Sadie Hawkins" Square Dance was sponsored by the club in March.

tered two consecutive years in one sport a varsity sweater.

To boost school spirit further, the members undertook to sell pennants and shakers.

The Monogram Club jointly sponsored a sock hop with the Girls' Athletic Association, and a banquet was held in June for the purpose of distributing letters and awards.

The Chorus presented a Christmas concert at the Southwestern State Hospital, and it sang for the East End Baptist Church on December 13. Also, the Chorus gave a ress system, the lights, and the curtains for the Lian's Club Minstrel, the Homecoming Variety Show, and various civic presentations.

Senior Science Club

During this school year, the Senior Science Club has sponsored the high school Science Fair on March 7th and helped to sponsor the annual County Fair held in the Marion gymnasium on March 18, 19, and 20.

All winners in this fair were sent to the Western Virginia Science Fair, which was held at Roanoke College in Salem, Virginia, on April 9. Other activities included a field trip.

The Science Club expenses come from the membership dues.

Junior Science Club

The club was divided into six divisions: Biology, Astronomy, Geology, Chemistry, Physics, and Rocketry. Each member chose a division in which to participate. A division was responsible for a program each month, and a committee appointed by the president aided them.

The club was honored during the year to have several guest speakers who talked on perpetual motion, dreams, and science projects.

The big project of the year was the Science Fair in Solem, which was attended by 40 members of the Junior Science Club. The purpose of this meeting was to help members with science projects next year.

Backward Glance

On August 31, more than 890 students began the school year of 1959-60. To the eighth graders it was a wonderful new experience. To the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors it was another year of studying, fun, and excitement, but to the seniors, it was the beginning of the year they would remember the rest of their lives, their senior year at Marion High School.

Football season opened with a 12-6 victory over Graham. The Scarlet Hurricane football team ended with a five-five record for the '59 season.

College Career Night, held on November 10, answered a lot of questions for students from Chilhowie, Saltville, Marion, Rich Valley, and Sugar Grove. Many students went home with a better understanding of what their future held for them.

On October 4, Juanita Burnop was crowned Queen of the Apple Festival held annually at Chilhowie.

One of the happiest days for the seniors was the arrival of the senior rings on October 14th.

The Variety Show with the theme of "Showtime '59" began the homecoming activities October 22. A parade was held before the game between Marion and Abingdon. Marion won by a score of 13-0 despite a downpour of rain. Rebecca Barnett was crowned homecoming queen preceding the homecoming dance held October 24.

On November 20, the Junior Class presented a three act comedy, "Look Behind You". Betsy Sanders and Richard Waddell starred in the leading roles along with a fine cast of others.

The Hi-Y Clubs sponsored the Christmas Dance December 12, with Marie Wassum and Freddie Barker reigning as King and Queen.

The Christmas holidays were welcomed on Friday, December 18, but the new year of 1960 came too soon as we returned to school on January 3 to prepare for the mid-term exams.

The Valentine Dance, sponsored by the F.H.A. and F.F.A., was held February 15 to the theme "Heart of My Heart". Dorothy Perkins and James Buchanan were crowned King and Queen of Hearts.

Our basketball teams, coached by Miss Violet Testerman and Mr. Charles Harkins, ended with a record of 12-9 for the boys' team and 13-1 for the girls'. Everyone was proud of them.

Another enjoyable ballgame was the Senior-Faculty Game held on March 22.

"The Darling Brats" was the title of the senior comedy play held on April 28 and 29. The play was a big success with Dorothy Perkins and Marvin Groseclose in the starring roles.

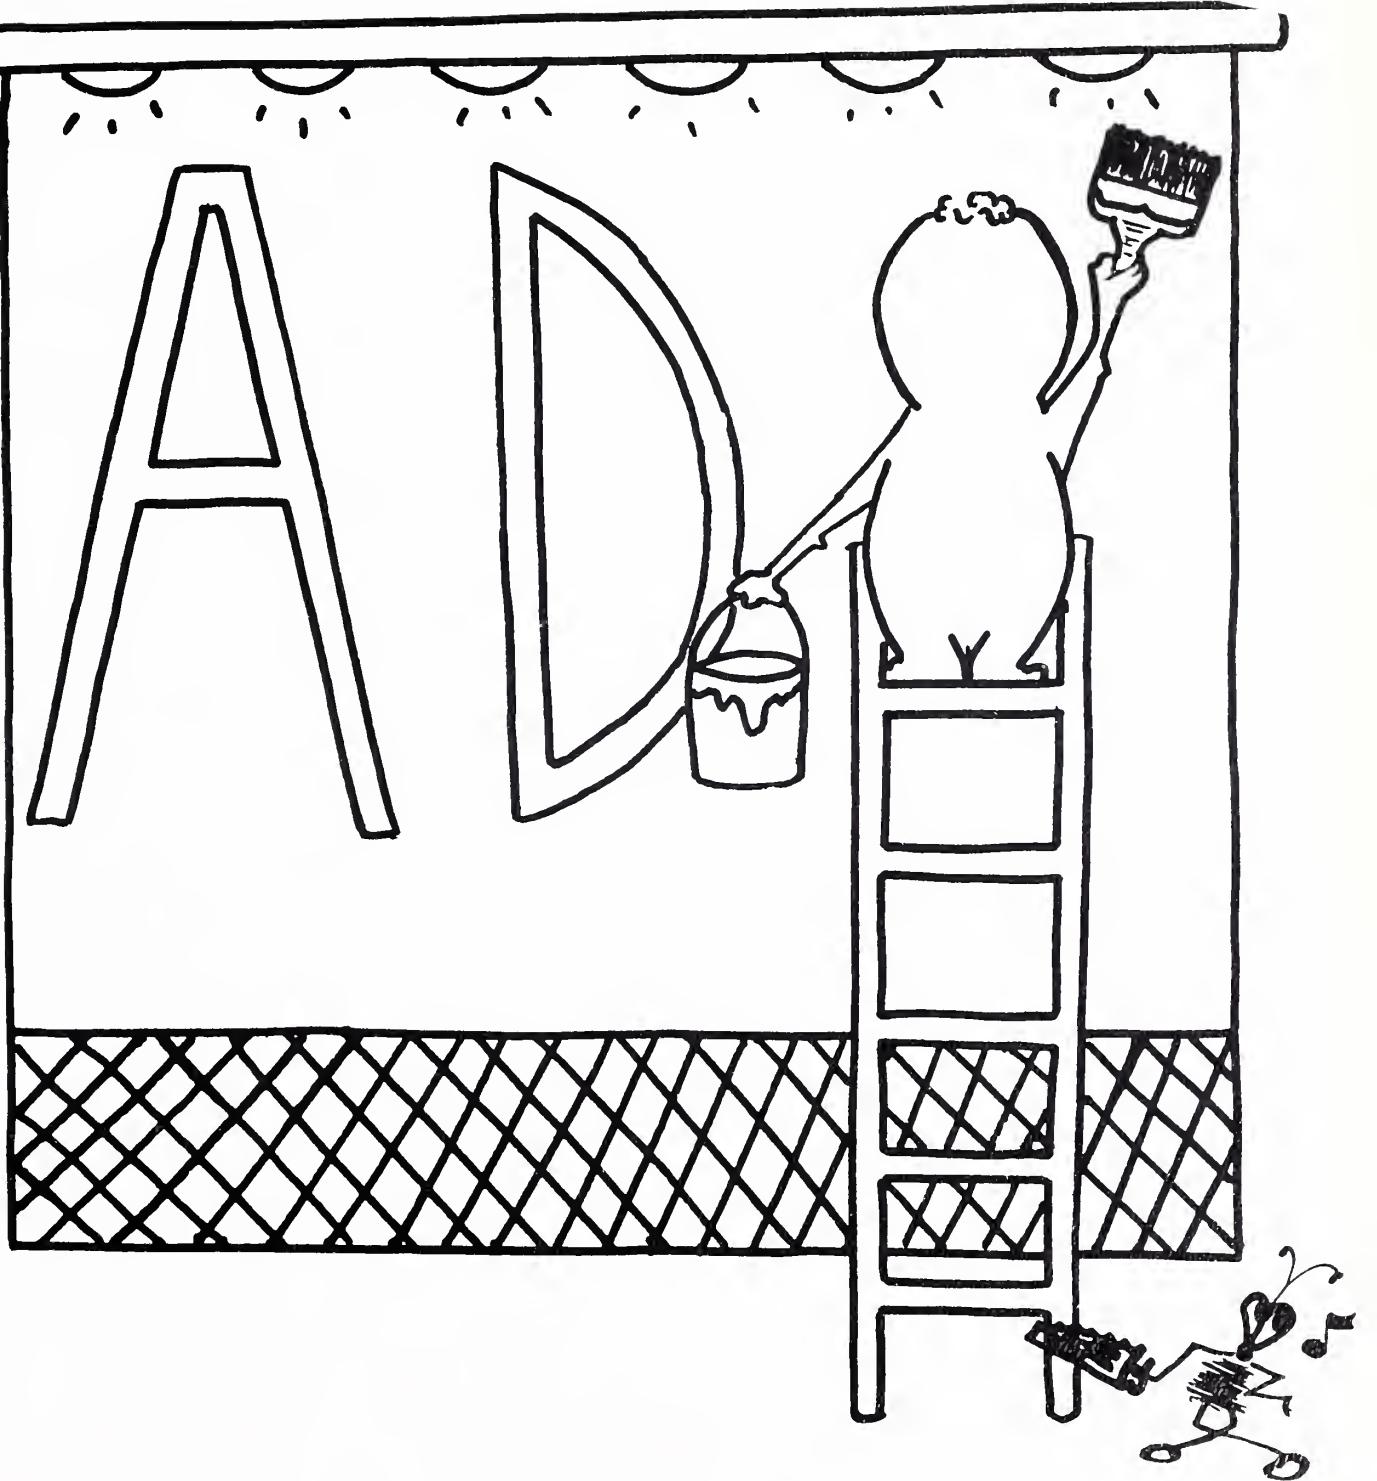

A vacation no one had planned on came during the months of February and March due to the heavy snowfall that fell on Southwestern Virginia.

On May 18, the seniors went to Washington after hard work from everyone on the Christmas cards, the Senior-Faculty Game, and drive-in tickets.

The last months of the school year held many memorable events such as the Easter vacation, band concerts, baseball games, track meets, and the Junior-Senior Prom. But the biggest day for the seniors was GRADUATION DAY on June 6.

We as graduates of Marion High School feel a deep sense of pride in the work we have achieved during the past five years. Many of us have made lasting friendships, which have meant a great deal to us. Now we are on our own, facing the big world outside these walls with great zeal and anticipation, but our fondest memories will always remain at our beloved Alma Mater.

Virginia Heldreth--1960 Senior Class Historian

Finale.....

The newly elected annual staff began work on this 1960 HURRICANE at their first meeting in October of 1959. "Last year's assistants", for the first time, realized how much work producing an annual required, but they already knew how much fun was mixed with work; so they were ready and willing to begin.

The biggest jobs we had facing us were choosing the covers and picking a theme. Both jobs required much controversy and debate, because we wanted the best for our M.H.S. yearbook. After doing this we were able to start to work on our individual sections.

We worked hard for a good eight months, but we feel it has not been in vain. The staff feels that they have given the students and teachers an annual which they will forever cherish and appreciate.

The staff deserves a lot of credit for the wonderful job they have done, but we all felt that our greatest reward would come when we could read our completed annual from cover to cover.

To our wonderful sponsors, Mrs. Gardan Linkaus and Mr. Fred McDonald, we owe much gratitude and appreciation for their help, guidance, and patience. We would also like to extend our thanks to the Howard-Duckett Company for their work in putting out the 1960 HURRICANE.

The staff would like to make one last remark as this school year draws to a close. We hope you enjoy the annual as much as we enjoyed producing it.
